◆ LIMITED INVENTORY

A black and white photograph of a man in a shower. He is standing with his back to the camera, head tilted back, eyes closed, and arms crossed. He is wearing a dark towel. A large, circular rainfall showerhead is mounted on the wall, spraying water over him. The shower wall is made of large, dark, rectangular tiles. To the right of the man, there is a vertical shower bar with a handheld showerhead and a control panel with two knobs. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the water spray and the man's silhouette.
